Lawyer Inclusive Practice

A voluntary process where parties work towards an outcome with respect to their parenting or property matters with the assistance of a Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner (FDRP) and parties' legal practitioners.

Parties undergo the same process as Family Dispute Resolution (mediation) with the added Lawyer Inclusive component. Refer to the flowcharts on the following page for an overview.

We offer responsive, flexible and effective mediation services to the SA community without regard to religion, race, culture, sexuality, or gender identity.

WHO: Separated individuals

HOW: Parties can self-refer. Referrals are also received from the courts and legal professionals

COST: Some fees apply

WHERE: 45 Wakefield Street, Adelaide

Office T3, 2-6 Sturt Reserve Road, Murray Bridge

Level 1, 62 Gray Street, Mount Gambier

Parties can self-refer by contacting our office to schedule an intake appointment. Legal practitioners can refer clients by completing a referral form, our Family Advisor will then contact the parties to initiate the process.

Additionally, we may refer parties to seek legal advice and to consider engaging a legal representative of their choice to participate in Lawyer Inclusive Practice.

FEE FOR SERVICE

Our service is partly funded by the Federal Government. As this funding does not cover all costs, a fee may be charged. A schedule of fees is available on the website or you can contact us for more information.

Other services we offer:

- Child Inclusive Practice
- Supporting Children After Separation (information session)
- Co-Parent Coaching (for both parents together)
- Family Law Counselling (for individuals)

SAFETY

Centacare takes the safety of families very seriously. If you have any safety concerns, please discuss them with your FDRP.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidentiality and privacy are of the utmost importance in FDR services. All FDRPs and Child Consultants must work within the Family Law Act (FLA) 1975 – Section 10H, where communications made in FDR are not able to be disclosed and are inadmissible in court unless required or authorised under the FLA.

FDRPs are required to disclose information to appropriate authorities where suspicions of safety to a person or property are revealed. Under section 67ZA, information disclosed indicating reasonable grounds of suspicion that a child has been or is at risk of being abused must also be reported.
